Please note the following statement from the [Baseline Information page \[1\]](#) applies to the documents included here:

5. Are the questions available?

Yes, in the initial phase, you can see the tests at HERE but please keep it confidential as we want pupils to see these for the first time when they take the test. Given that there is no pressure from league tables etc on this test there is no reason for it to be "leaked" but we need everyone to be professional about this. We will vary the test but care will be taken to ensure it reflects the programmes of study and that standards expected are consistent and fit for purpose. Thanks to those that have already contributed valuable feedback. We take all feedback on board and we will use it to make improvements in the future.
