

South African Educators in Imbali Township

Submitted by Ian Lynch on Tue, 2008-11-18 12:58

17 November 2008, Imbali, KZN, South Africa Today, 20 educators from 5 schools in Imbali Township, Pietermaritzburg received their Assessor Certificates. The schools formed part of the tuXlab project funded by Hulamin in Pietermaritzburg. Over 4000 learners from this historically poor community will now be certified over the next year with the Ingots Bronze Level 1 Certificate providing them with the base to progress on to self-sufficiency using free and open resources from the internet.

Language Undefined

Source URL: <https://theingots.org/community/node/11103#comment-0>