It is very easy to contribute towards the butterfly effect. This is because on the main home page there is an automatic link that guides you to a website to donate. It seems very easy to take part in the project as the website is very formal. This makes the project seem very welcoming to a newcomer. This is because it is very easy to follow the steps and do. The link to dante and help is: <http://sourceforge.net/users/lspace> [1]. On here you can help the owner and even email him if in question.

Now that i have looked into this project in depth i think it is a very useful game for all ages because it helps you with skills you have not yet used before. It is a little complicated in some places so if i was a member of this project i would improve it by making it suitable for all ages.
